

Integrated Territorial Development in V4+2 countries: new challenges, new ideas, new responses

Contributions from ESPON research

Date: 7th March 2018

Host: Ministry for National Economy, Budapest, Hungary

Venue: Grand Hall of the Ministry for National Economy

József nádor tér 2-4, 1051 Budapest

Entrance from the corner of Dorottya utca and Wekerle Sándor utca

DRAFT AGENDA 19th Jan 2018

09.00	Registration and welcome coffee
10.00	Welcome	Hungarian Ministry for National Economy
10.15	Opening	Ilona Raugze, ESPON EGTC Director (tbc)

PART 1: STATE OF PLAY IN VISEGRAD 4+2 COUNTRIES

Integrated territorial development in the V4+2 countries and the Common Spatial Development Strategy of the V4+2: policy challenges and research observations

10.30	Are spatial planning systems coordinating and integrating? Analysing territorial governance and spatial planning systems in the V4+2	Keynote, ESPON COMPASS
10:55	Review of territorial development and challenges in V4+2	Keynote, Hungarian Ministry for National Economy
11.20	Coffee break
11.40	Addressing key challenges for integrated territorial development: a view from the V4+2 community Panel session with V4+2 national experts and ESPON COMPASS researchers
12.50	Q&A
13.00	Lunch

PART 2: THE WAY FORWARD

	New logic of and new needs for integration Plenary session
14.00	Mainstreaming cooperation	ESPON EGTC on the EU Territorial Review
	Communities of Intent	ESPON ACTAREA
	Place-based strategies in practice	ESPON ReSSI
	The need for integrating inner peripheries	ESPON PROFECY
15.15	Coffee break
15.30	Do we adequately address the integration demand with support schemes and instruments? Panel discussion Demand-responsive programming: exploring synergies between ESIF, R&I and financial instruments featuring (tbc): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - INTERREG Danube and Central - DG RTD: synergies between ESIF and R&I framework programmes - ITI instruments: DG Regio; CZ / PL ESIF Managing Authorities - Blending instruments: European Investment Bank - EU Strategy for the Danube Region - ESPON applied research on financial instruments
16.40	Q&A
16.50	Conclusions
17.00	Closure	